Developed as a compact, modern tool for every day, the multifunction knife offers everything that is needed today in terms of functions. All fold-out functional parts of the RICHARTZ® pocket knife can be locked individually and unlocked again at the push of a button, which significantly increases work safety and precision. And as a strong branded product with the greatest possible customization, PROKNIFE 15+ is very special. The handle shells can be finished in 4 colors, over the entire surface and scratch-resistant according to customer requirements, and in combination with individually designed packaging, the modern pocket knife becomes a highly communicative advertising medium that advertises successfully in the long term.
